Fees and other Financial Considerations

1. Fees for each semester or academic year must be paid in advance according to the terms and payment schedules designated by the College.
2. Failure to pay fees may incur fines. Students will not be allowed to attend classes unless the fees and fines are paid in full.
3. Fees once paid will not be refunded.
4. Students are advised not to enter into any financial transactions with other students, staff of the institution or other persons they may interact with during the course of the Program. Any such transaction will be at the student's own risk and the college management will not be responsible for or mediate any disputes arising from such transactions. This applies to the exchange or lending of personal items, including but not limited to, electronic gadgets, mobile devices etc.
5. Students dismissed from the college for misconduct will not have any financial or legal claim on the college or University. They will not be entitled to any fee refund. Furthermore, they will be liable to pay all pending dues, including but not limited to, pending total fees for the full Program, fines etc. The college will issue students a 'No- Dues' certificate only upon settling all such dues.
6. Students who withdraw from the Program will not receive any refund on fees already paid. Such students will also be liable to pay all remaining dues, including but not limited to, pending total fees for the full Program, fines etc.
